

AmeriSpec's 200% satisfaction promise is simple.

We ask that you are present during the entire inspection. If you are not completely satisfied with the inspection for any reason (prior to receiving the written report), simply state your concern and the entire fee will be refunded to you. That's the first 100%

Then simply book an inspection with another InterNachi or ASHI certified home inspector of your choice and we will pay them up to our original inspection fee.

That's the second 100%.

No fine print no hassles.
